

Aurora, OH Author Publishes Novel

In This Novel Disaster Strikes When Four Friends Go On Vacation

Our Phantom Voyage, a new book by Patricia Macko, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Based on a true story, this fascinating book presents dual and alternating story lines that share the lives of those in charge at the county jail: the correction officers who endure the swing shifts, confinement, and the risk of exposing themselves to a dangerous population of criminals, mentally deranged characters, and notorious inmates who are locked up and angry with the world.

Our Phantom Voyage explores the characters with a personalized look at their friendships and working relationships. A much-needed vacation that was planned for four of them results in a disastrous experience that will keep you turning pages until the very end.

This book has universal appeal to those who love adventure, romance, and good versus evil scenarios. The story has been greatly embellished and not all scenarios included are true. The names have been changed to protect the guilty.

About the Author

Patricia Macko is a first-time author whose prose offers a direct and purposeful style of writing. A professional background of thirty years as a corporate marketing executive gives her the ability to build a story of interest and appeal. This first novel displays her gift of storytelling, combining a love of words and an Irish wit. Her creative vision has been the key to her successful career. She was named Woman of Marketing Excellence by the YWCA's program to recognize and reward female marketing professionals of note.

Patricia enjoys reading, cooking, volunteering, and spending time with her nine grandchildren.

Our Phantom Voyage is a 146-page paperback with a retail price of $14.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-9519-2. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
