

Naples, FL Author Publishes Autobiography

In This Autobiography a Man Looks Back at His Life and Business Career

Anti-Hero, a new book by Leo S. Martinuzzi, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Anti-Hero is an autobiography with details about the family and business life of Leo S. Martinuzzi, along with his observations about individuals in leadership positions. It deals with his lifetime career in international banking, his distinguished and fascinating family history, his education, and his service in the Korean War.

About the Author

Leo S. Martinuzzi graduated with a B.A. with honors from Harvard University in 1950 and from Oxford University in 1952. He served in the U.S. Navy as a Lt. (j.g.) for four years in the Korean War.

Martinuzzi worked for the Chase Manhattan bank for twenty-four years, seven of which were in the head of the Japanese branches. He also served as the head of international marketing, the head of acquisitions, the head of the holding company, and as the head of information. In 1980, he left Chase and joined Squibb as senior vice president for planning.

Martinuzzi retired in 1990 and moved to Naples where he taught economics (macro and micro) for four years at Edison Center.

Anti-Hero is a 66-page paperback with a retail price of $11.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-9510-9. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.