This Kids Book Features Two Silly Stories about Bath Time

The Bathtub Mystery, a new book by Lyndsy Ryd, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

The Bathtub Tales feature two short, silly tales of bath time. Both tales highlight the humor that can come from a world without rules, unconfined by the limitations of reality. In this world, readers will laugh as bathtubs come to life and sticky goo reveals itself to be something entirely different than first thought!

The Bathtub Mystery follows a very confused Karmalizken Koolinen, King of the Zoolis on the planet of Zoolioxen, who just wants to take a bath. However, his bathtub has been infiltrated with the greasiest, slimiest mass of goo anyone has ever seen! Despite his attempts to shake the goo with a shovel and the Zooli-Bahookie 2000, the goo simply won't budge! A plot twist ends the story, leaving the characters giggling over one big misunderstanding.

The Runaway Bathtub, yet to be released, will feature a bathtub that just won't stay put, one that's determined to shake loose from the bathroom floor! However, this bathtub is not mischievous but instead is on a heroic mission to save the day.
