In This Novel a Woman Must Navigate a New World after Becoming Blind

Darkness of My Eyes, a new book by Nayan Dave, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Darkness of My Eyes is a compassionate love story of a brave patriotic embedded veteran reporter girl, who became blind due to her injuries in the war. She cannot tolerate this disability and decides to end her life. A military research doctor vows to make her better and the story begins. Story has many twists and turns and sadness and anguishes of a helpless disabled young girl and her father. This story will make you understand what kind of sacrifices our troops make to keep us safe from our enemies and we can never give any consideration to them even in our dreams. This is a very romantic and reality filled story that will captivate you with unsuspecting ending. This compelling story will fill your heart with grace and tenderness for our war heroes and will provide you entertainment as well. We should not take their sacrifices for granted.

This book also emphasizes the helplessness of a blind people and their anguishes. God bless us all and give us strength to deal with whatever disability he gives us.
