

Philadelphia, PA Author Publishes Dancing Memoir

In This Memoir a Woman Looks at Her Life in Dance

I'll Die Dancing, a new book by Fay Siravo, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

From the first time she experienced the world of dance, author Fay Siravo knew that she loved it. Despite the hardships of life, she continued dancing, and it brought her joy. Her story serves as an example to the reader by showing how to enjoy life even when it is tough.

Fay hopes to inspire others to contribute to the world as she has done. Follow along with her story as she unveils the ups and downs of daily life in I'll Die Dancing.

About the Author

Fay Siravo was born and raised in Port Richmond, a section of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Throughout her lifetime she has made important contributions to Avon, including their domestic violence program, as well as to the Chrysler Corporation, the retail and fashion industries, and music and dance culture of the 1950s through the 1980s.

Fay also supported the troops in Desert Storm as a door-to-door Avon representative, soliciting donations to equip the troops with personal grooming supplies. She currently lives in downtown Philadelphia.
