

RoseDog Books

Melbourne, Australia Author Publishes Crime Novel

In This Detective Novel a Policeman Finds Danger in the Art World

The Docklands Mystery, a new book by John R. Aarons, has been released by RoseDog Books.

The Docklands Mystery is the second in a series of crime novels that features Martin Taylor, an Australian at the Victorian State police headquarters in Melbourne's Docklands precinct.

In this new adventure, the owner of a Melbourne art gallery becomes involved in a mystery after having sold a valuable painting to a local businessman with criminal connections.

An elaborate plan is then hatched to get the painting back. Martin's romantic liaison with a Spanish beauty continues in this exciting tale.

The Docklands Mystery will appeal to lovers of crime fiction. The journey will take readers through Australia and the Netherlands with amusing touches of humour thrown in.

About the Author

John R. Aarons spent many years living and working as a design engineer and construction supervisor in Australia, the USA, United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Belgium and New Zealand.

He now resides in his birthplace of Melbourne with his wife. They enjoy many happy hours with their family who live nearby. They continue to travel extensively every year.

The Docklands Mystery is a 158-page paperback with a retail price of $14.00. The ISBN is 978-1-6461-0426-0. It was published by RoseDog Books of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore at www.rosedogbookstore.com.