

Zambia Author Publishes Ethics in South African Education Book

This Book Looks at Teaching Ethics in Zambia Schools

Ethics, Morals and Values in Education, a new book by Professor Plyson Manyani Muzumara (PhD), has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Many people in our country feel children today are growing up in an environment of moral distortion and decay. Children are exposed to evil influences from different dimensions within and outside of their communities. It is not uncommon to listen to the news and hear of corruption, thefts, child defilement, examination malpractices, gender-based violence and similar vices. We see a gradual erosion of values and morals in our society, but little effort is being spent to change it. Reflecting upon our culture's history should give us the opportunity to prepare our teachers to assume the role of moral educators as well as the conveyers of subject content.

This book focuses on the need to introduce and promote ethics, morals and values education in Zambia at both school and teacher education levels. It draws information generated by the author from schools, colleges of education and universities. Without a well-defined education policy in favour of promoting pupil and teacher ethics, morals and values in our learning institutions, efforts to promote the same in our education system are doomed to fail.
