In This Supernatural Novel a Woman's Past Catches Up with Her Just as She Finds Herself Falling in Love

Evanesce, a new book by Kei Rose, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

She enters his life unexpectedly, and her small, silver-haired presence instantly fills his entire being. Kai's scent is intoxicating and dizzying, entrancing Keller in a way he has never known before. Even though she has run far away, her past threatens to catch up with her as a sickness fights to overtake her. As violent dreams continue to torment her, Keller finds himself wondering if her secrets will ultimately lead to her demise... and his.

He doesn't eat. He doesn't sleep. Instantly, Kai knows in her heart that he's not a human like her. However, she finds herself drawn to him — as a protector and a lover — especially as the rest of the people in her life have turned against her. She finds a sense of safety with him, and she believes she has finally found someone to spend her last days with.

However, her past refuses to stay behind her and supernatural love is never so simple. As family members turn against them and their secret world is turned upside down, Keller and Kai find themselves battling for each other and for their ultimate survival.
