

Clayton, IN Author Publishes Spiritual Memoir

In This Memoir Find out How Doctors, Family, and Faith Got the Author through Tough Times

Finding Deeper Faith, a new book by Janet Smith, has been released by RoseDog Books.

Sooner or later, sometime in your life you will endure pain and disappointment. Author Janet Smith believes that finding your deep Faith and giving it all to God will get you through. She says that Faith is not only a word or a belief and it is more than a feeling. Through the pain and disappointments of life, finding Faith at your lowest moments can put you back up on top of your life.

In Finding Deeper Faith, the author explains that, though dreams can be lost and life is full of disappointment and pain, finding your scripture can carry you through. After Smith's twenty plus years of cancer, chemo, doctors, surgeries, and life's lows, she believes that God will carry you through if you only have Faith. She is thankful for doctors who love their practice and who do research on new treatments, the doctors who listen to your complaints and feelings and want the same outcome as you.

The reader will find how Smith's doctors, family, and Faith turned her life around and gave her the feeling that God will carry her on, leading the way forward.

About the Author

Janet Smith lives in a small town outside Indianapolis, Indiana, with her husband, Steve, and two mischievous fur babies. They raised their two children, Stephanie and Jason, there in the country. Smith is a grandmother of seven grandchildren who keep her going and she loves their visits. She continues to substitute teach at the local schools and loves being around children of all ages.

Finding Deeper Faith is a 32-page paperback with a retail price of $9.00. The ISBN is 978-1-6442-6522-2. It was published by RoseDog Books of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore at www.rosedogbookstore.com.