About the Author

LaVonae V. Floyd became a true believer in 1983 when she was prompted by God to read the New Testament. As she read, her life was completely changed as God's Word brought light. The Word changed the way she talked, the way she dressed, what she watched on television or listened to on the radio, and even who she associated with. She found a Bible-teaching, spirit-filled church conducting altar calls to receive Christ as Lord and she responded to the altar call. Her life has never been the same.

Floyd's husband prompted her to write Christian books as she was so full of the Word and should share it with others. While in prayer the Lord prompted her to write this book.
