

Wyndmoor, PA Author Publishes Children's Book

In This Book a Little Girl Shares Her Love of a Certain Kind of Candy

For Breakfast I Ate a Peanut Chew®, a new book by Elizabeth Pearson Welsh, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

For Breakfast I Ate a Peanut Chew® is an incredibly endearing short story that children of all ages will enjoy. By the end of the rhyme, the reader will undoubtedly find themselves craving this temptingly fun and delicious snack!

About the Author

Author Elizabeth Pearson Welsh lives with her husband and their dog, Wrigley, outside Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She grew up in Haverford, Pennsylvania, where she attended the Agnes Irwin School. She graduated with her BSN from the University of Virginia and currently works as a nurse practitioner in college health.

Welsh is an avid runner, rower and enjoys hikes with her family. She is also a long-time member of the Undine Barge Club of Philadelphia. Besides writing, she also enjoys knitting.

About the Illustrator

Illustrator Berrie Torgan-Randall has been an artist all her life, beginning in grade school and continuing through high school with all A's in Art class. She studied at Syracuse University earning her BFA. Pursuing her desire to work with children, Berrie returned to school and earned a masters degree in Information Studies (Library Science) at Drexel University.

In addition to freelance work, and raising a family, she has written and illustrated her own books as well as books for private clients. Check out her website at www.berrietr.com

For Breakfast I Ate a Peanut Chew® is a 36-page hardcover with a retail price of $24.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-4278-3. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.