

Pittsburgh, PA Community Project Publishes Bilingual Book about Muslims

This Book is a Guide to Help People Better Know Their Muslim Friends

Getting to Know Your Muslim Friends: A Bilingual Book about Islam, a new book by Noor Al Assawi, has been released by RoseDog Books.

Getting to Know Your Muslim Friends is one of the many books by Saving Stories, which is a project to collect and 'save stories' from refugee community members in the suburban Pittsburgh boroughs of Baldwin and Whitehall. The Saving Stories project has united a broad range of community contributors who share a common commitment to enhance native and English literacy, archive native culture, and increase public awareness of their community's unique diversity.
