High Point, NC Author Publishes Children's Book

This Illustrated Kids Book will Open up the Reader's Mind to the Wonders of Every Day Life

Have You Ever Wondered..., a new book by Walter Hayes, has been released by RoseDog Books.

This thought provoking, yet amusing, humorous book is animated by a group of everyday items found around the household known as "The Thinkers". Several of the "The Thinkers" consist of Nose, Mr. Drain, and Kido, the drain covers and Volt, the electrical outlet. On each page, "The Thinkers" present thoughts and questions meant to inspire the reader, both children and adults, to use their imagination and dream. They introduce ideas to help us think about what may be in our world, the Galaxy we view and inhabit, our infinite Universe.

Because our world is full of wonders, "The Thinkers" present situations both real and imaginary, laughable and also serious for us to ponder. Some of the thoughts, ponderings, and questions posed by "The Thinkers" include: "Do Flies Do Loops or Rolls When They Land On The Ceiling?", "Why can some people only wink one eye?" and "When it's raining, is it really snowing melted snow?" Have You Ever Wondered... Then come join the ride and open your world!
