

RoseDog Books

Patterson, CA Author Publishes Western

In This Novel a Cowboy Finds Himself in the Middle of a Cattle War

High Country Spring, a new book by Don Krueger, has been released by RoseDog Books.

Born and raised on the east coast, Ted Murchand follows the call of the western wilderness, taking a job as a cowboy at the ranch of Angus Richmond. The quiet life he longed for, however, is soon disrupted as Ted finds himself dangerously embroiled in a feud between warring cattle ranchers in this classic western tale.

About the Author

In addition to his professional career as an engineer, Don Krueger has long enjoyed an avocation as a novelist and poet. He is particularly interested in the genre of historical fiction, where he draws deftly from his boyhood as a scout, his military service, and his engineering background to bring various historical epochs to life. Now embarking on his tenth decade, he continues to enjoy a full life of family, friends and affectionate pets.

High Country Spring is a 248-page paperback with a retail price of $18.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-7917-8. It was published by RoseDog Books of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore at www.rosedogbookstore.com.