Isabell Pratt is a normal little girl whose life is about to change in a big, big way! After a misunderstanding with her best friend Julie, whose parents call her a "military brat," Isabel gives her parents a choice: either Daddy quits the Army or she's running away.

But what does it truly mean to be a military brat? Maybe it's not as bad as it seems!

About the Author

Denise McKenzie is a wife, mother, and ex-military brat. Isabell Pratt Military Brat is inspired her by real-life experiences as a military child.

In fact, the city she works in is where her father retired from the Army. At the time, she was in the third grade.

McKenzie resides now on a farm in Oklahoma, where she enjoys spending time with her family and all of the animals on the farm.
