

Winston-Salem, NC Author Publishes Spiritual Short Stories

In This Collection of Short Stories the Power of God's Wisdom is Celebrated

Is It Really Fiction?, a new book by Lue Ann Tucker, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

With God, all things are possible, and miracles are everywhere we turn.

This is the theme of the stories of Is It Really Fiction? The characters in these stories reveal the many ways we strive to understand God's wisdom, power, and love. While they are fictional tales, they allow us to begin to better understand the scriptures and appreciate that God's living word is all around us, permeating our everyday lives.

From experiencing the power of love amidst grief to trusting in God's love to guide you along life's journey to putting your faith in the power of the Lord, these stories are sure to bring you peace, inspiration, and hope as you realize that the impossible may very well be possible.

About the Author

Lue Ann Tucker resides in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where she serves as praise and worship leader of the Praise Assembly Church.

Lue Ann is a proud mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother and has been a minister for twenty-five years. She graduated from Guilford College in Greensboro in 2011 with a degree in religious studies and music/voice.

While writing has always been a hobby for Lue Ann, she wrote Is It Really Fiction? during a particularly difficult time in her life. She credits writing with helping her endure her struggles.

Is It Really Fiction? is a 70-page paperback with a retail price of $11.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-9699-1. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.