In This Novel Five Women in a Small Town Try to Find Happiness and Love

The Joy in Michigan, a new book by LaShonda Jordan, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Five women face five different problems in life and love. Joy must choose between the sexy, passionate, but complicated man from her past or a fresh start with someone new. Diane must try to stop her daughter from walking down a dark road while being haunted with the memories of her own sordid past. Jennifer must take out the trash and rid herself of her cheating man before she loses herself in a bad relationship. Michelle must navigate a complex world where sexual identity is fluid and relationships face new challenges daily. April must face facts about who she really is—a man named Andrew.

The lives of these women intertwine in a small-town Arkansas, and by the end, none of them will be the same. They will learn about life, love, friendship, and relationships, and more importantly, they will learn about themselves. Drama goes hand-in-hand with the comedy of everyday life in this enchanting tale.
