Lake Charles, LA Author Publishes Novel

In This Novel a Young Boy Helps His Dad Fish for Dinner

Loaves and Fishes, a new book by Judy Bright-English, has been released by RoseDog Books.

Loaves and Fishes takes place in the biblical era along the sea shores.

Enos watches the sun rise from his father's fishing boat every morning where he eagerly sits and waits to see what his father catches. One day Enos' father saves a good fish for their supper and his mother makes extra bread. Enos knows this can only mean one thing – they are going to take a trip! Little does he know what a big help he will be!

About the Author

Judy Bright-English is a full-time homemaker for her husband, four sons, and one daughter. She has been married for twenty years. Throughout her childhood her parents provided her with an endless supply of books and magazines to read and gave her her first typewriter when she was in third grade. From that moment on, she was determined to share her stories with the world and comments "I would never have been able to do this without God's grace or my parents."

Loaves and Fishes is a 30-page paperback with a retail price of $16.00. The ISBN is 978-1-6442-6755-4. It was published by RoseDog Books of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
