

St. George, UT Author Publishes Memoir of Love

In This True Story Find Out How Two Seniors Citizens Found Each Other On-Line and Fell in Love

Love On Line, a new book by Shelia Kinneer Robb, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Shelia lives in Kentucky, divorced and 76 years old. Paul lives in California, widowed and 80 years old. Both are devout Christians. Both are looking for something more in their lives. Thanks to a website called Christian Singles, they both find it. It begins with a simple, one-line email, but it soon blossoms into a relationship that grows more special on a daily basis. Will the 2,000 miles that separate them in the real world keep them apart, or will they find a way to make their love work?

Love On Line is a true tale of two people who, after believing the romantic times of their lives were over, found each other and made the most of the gift God gave them. The story of their new and growing love will remind you that there is no such thing as “too late” when it comes to finding someone who can change your life.

About the Author

Shelia Kinneer Robb is a retired operating room nurse, a mother of six, and both a grandmother and great-grandmother.
