

Houston, TX Author Publishes Political Book

In This Book the Author Argues for Rewriting the Constitution

The Constitutionalist Manifesto, a new book by Dud Crawford, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

America is on the verge of another constitutional confrontation – just like in 1860-1861. The reasons for what are an accelerating dissolution of our Social Contract lie within the Constitution. Author Dud Crawford shows what the problems are and why he believes the U.S. Constitution is a failure. The question is: Do we do what we did the last time and have a civil war or do we create a new Constitution designed to handle the problems we see in America? Dud has written a new Constitution for all citizens to critique and make changes as needed.

About the Author

Dud Crawford is the second in a Navy family of five children. He grew up all over and was lucky enough to spend two years in Naples, Italy, in the 1950s. He graduated from Old Dominion University with a BA in history and he has a BS degree in computer science from the University of Houston. He spent two years in the U.S. Army, part of the time in Germany with the 1st Infantry Division.

Dud has a daughter and grandchildren who live in Nebraska and many close family members spread across the South.
