After a violent and impoverishes childhood, Jim served in the US Army and worked many different jobs to support his family, and always striving for excellence. At the age of thirty, Jim found a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, and the boundaries began to fall away! Jim became the top automotive salesman for Jeff Wyler Chevrolet for many years, before having ownership in dealerships and franchises. Then Jim began to share his success and the reason for it! Through mission trips and personal witnessing to prisoners in Indiana and Tennessee, Jim spread word of God's love, and the message: Your life has no Boundaries. Now, you can enjoy his amazing testimony, and how it can help you overcome the boundaries in your life.
