

Oklahoma City, OK Author Publishes Memoir

In This Memoir a Woman Recounts Her Dark Days and How the Grace of God Redeemed Her

Not Mine Alone, a new book by Tara Homsey, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

“Not Mine Alone takes a sobering look at the destructive power of sin balanced with a powerful glimpse of the redemptive power of Christ. Tara pulls the curtain back on her life, showing the depths to which abuse, drug use, reckless sex, and mental health issues took her. Yet despite all of this, she found a beautiful identity in Jesus. This book is an engaging read. Most importantly, I was reminded of God’s ability to exchange our pain for His righteousness.” -Jason Gunter, Ph.D. Licensed Psychologist

About the Author

Tara Homsey lives in Oklahoma City with her precious dog “Sam”. She comes from a large Lebanese family, two sisters as well as close to 40 first cousins. Tara finished her bachelor’s degree in Philosophy in 2015 and is currently working on her Master’s degree in Theological Studies from Nazarene Theological Seminary.

In March of 1996, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. Though she had not fully understood her new identity in Christ and continued in self-destructive ways. That summer she met a man during a drug deal and formed an unhealthy relationship. A year later Tara became pregnant with twins. At one point all medical voices encouraged her to abort the babies, but she chose life, against all odds! She has been clean and sober since 2005. Tara believes her journey through darkness and despair to redemption was only possible through the grace of her loving Heavenly Father.

Not Mine Alone is a 174-page paperback with a retail price of $15.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-9346-4. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
