In This Memoir a Man Recounts his Four Decades on the Radio

On the Air: My Life & 41+ Years in Small Market Radio, a new book by Christopher L. Knauer, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

On the Air: My Life & 41+ Years in Small Market Radio details one man's adventures as he discovers his talent for radio broadcasting. This book will take you from his small town upbringing, to his college and military life, to his struggles behind the microphone and his successes in radio and television. The reader will learn much of what goes on behind the scenes in small market radio and about the author's personal journey.

About the Author

Christopher L. Knauer a.k.a Chris O'Brian grew up as a shy Midwestern boy who was born in Eastern Iowa and grew up in a small Northwestern town in Illinois. He loves sports and music (maybe not in that order). Even though many radio and TV fans have assumed he has a special kind of personality and must enjoy living in the limelight, Chris prefers to just quietly do his best without a lot of hype or fanfare.

Chris' hobbies include fishing, golfing, and traveling, and he still follows baseball and basketball as often as possible. He has three adult children and two grandchildren. Visit the book's website at <https://ontheairbook.com/>.
