Mama's Got a Dog!, a new book by Donald (Donny) N. Roberson, Jr., has been released by RoseDog Books.

This book for all ages offers a glimpse into the wide and interesting life of the author's mother. She showed us how to live life when one is older, embracing new adventures and laying others aside. She showed us how an animal could add a new dimension to one's life. She loved being around people, yet she would never write a book about her life. But the author felt certain that her story will encourage others. Although she has left us now, Ritch is still here!
