In This Western Novel a Stranger Helps a Preacher Save a His Town

Roxie and the Preacher, a new book by Glenn Ribblett, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Roxie and the Preacher is a riveting tale of the Old West, but depicts themes that are still relevant in today's world. When Roxie and his horse, Jack, stumble upon a small town in the Colorado Territory, he learns that the town needs his help now more than ever.

The Preacher has a dream of developing a non-violent town where families can live peacefully among one another, and he knows this is just the community to put that plan into action. His vision does not come to fruition easily, but with Roxie's help, and some other new friends he meets along the way, he realizes that this may be possible.
