

Gresham, OR Author Publishes Book on Arab Culture

In This Book a Professor Breaks down What it Means to be a Arab in Today's Society

The Arabs, a new book by Dr. Atif Yusuf, has been released by RoseDog Books.

This book is an honest objective presentation of the causes of the Arab calamities and social destruction. The author touches on countless areas of Arab struggle. His analytical approach of the Arab plight is presented with the purity and uprightness of character. His criticism of the Arab rulers is free from misrepresentation. The absurdity of the Arab governing system is presented without distortion or falsification. The erroneous governing system of the Arab rulers is tackled with strong mental powers disciplined by thoughtfulness. The author's intellect demonstrates extensive knowledge of the Arab idiocy in foreign politics. He exposed the falsehood of the Arab rulers and tested their setback by the doctrines of the Quran as a sole path for salvation. The clearness and power with which the writer presented the drawbacks of the Arab rulers convinces the readers' understanding and the author's fervor touches their hearts.

The author advances a winning eloquence combined with the purity and uprightness of character. He has a commanding narrative style that grabs attention easily. His words are free from pride, and misrepresentation. The eloquence of the writer and the smoothness of his expression captivate the reader and his fervor touches their hearts. The idiocy, treason, and plundering of the Arab rulers are incisively exposed.

Without passion or excitement the author has tested human theories and religious doctrines by the Quran. Through a sound knowledge of the Arab mentality and the faith of Islam, the author contests the errors of the Arab ruling systems and exposes the deception of the Arab rulers. Earnest are the efforts the author put forth to draw away the Arab minds from corruption and ungodly lusts
