

Fruitland, ID Author Publishes Memoir

In This Memoir a Man Tells of Growing up in the 1940s in Idaho and Oregon

The First Kiss: A Short Story of Lost Love, a new book by Edward Gheen, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Edward Gheen's The First Kiss: A Short Story of Lost Love is a memoir of growing up in the outback of Idaho and Oregon in the 1940s. His story is told through the many different and unique relationships he forged throughout his life: the loves found and the loves lost.

About the Author

Edward Gheen was raised in Indian Valley, Idaho, on a farm. In his teens, he moved to Oregon, where he graduated high school and began working for the Forest Service. He later joined the U.S. Navy for four years, before attending university and earning his degree as a Wildlife Biologist. He has led a full life, filled with love, children—and adventure!

The First Kiss: A Short Story of Lost Love is a 30-page paperback with a retail price of $9.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-5999-6. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.