

Baltimore, MD Author Publishes Advice Book

In This Book the Former Police Commissioner of the Baltimore Police Department Gives Advice on Life, Love, and Happiness

The Hamm Rules on Relationships, Leadership, Community, and Love, a new book by Leonard Hamm, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Leonard Hamm had everything stacked against him. Raised in public housing, he attended public schools where most students went down the wrong path. It would be easy to fall prey to dangerous temptations. Instead, Hamm worked hard and earned a basketball scholarship to attend college. He became a police officer and worked his way up to be Baltimore's 36th police commissioner. Now, he wishes to share what he's learned with others.

The Hamm Rules on Relationships, Leadership, Community, and Love takes the tools one man has used to find success and translates them into easy step-by-step companion advice. Everyone in life needs some guidance. Let this book help you identify the tools you were born with and how to use them to lead a rewarding life.
