

Marina Del Ray, CA Author Publishes Novel

In This Thrilling New Novel a Man Must Pull His Life Together in Order to Survive

The Last Laugh, a new book by George Andrew Miller, Jr., has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

In 1938, Edgar Madison is suffering a financial crisis. He hires the McEachin brothers to stage a fake robbery of the mill's shaky captive bank. After the robbery, he has the McEachins killed.

Buddy Tate, four-year-old son of Tommy, is a secret, uncomprehending witness as Madison's Security Patrol slaughter and bury the McEachins.

By 1971, Buddy is a thirty-seven-year-old derelict. While sleeping under a bridge in Texas, he is attacked by a pack of starving dogs and barely escapes. Shaken, he takes steps to better himself.

The Last Laugh by George Andrew Miller, Jr. is a riveting thrill ride that will leave you breathless and hungry for more.

About the Author

George Andrew Miller, Jr. was born in Brewton, Alabama, in 1935. He attended the University of Alabama and studied creative writing under Professor Hudson Stroede. He was a student at the U of A during the desegregation of the college and was a proponent of civil rights then and throughout his life. He graduated with a bachelor of arts degree.

George was an avid tennis player, music lover, British sports car enthusiast, book collector, and dog lover. He married the love of his life, Ozell M. Chandler, in 1966. George passed away in 1981.

The Last Laugh is a 216-page paperback with a retail price of $18.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-2450-5. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.