

Oak Park, MI Author Publishes Memoir

In This Memoir a Veteran Tells of His Life Before, During and After the Vietnam War

The Long Road, a new book by Walter Dexter, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Sometimes the road in life is hard and we may feel like giving up at times. Walter Dexter knows this all too well. His life journey wasn't easy at all. Through much heartache and pain, various jobs, and having to experience the Vietnam War, it was a miracle that he came up and rose from the ashes.

The Long Road reminds us that regardless of where we come from, what background we have, what some of us experienced in war, or what jobs we have had, we can always mold our lives and become successful people on this earth.

About the Author

Walter Dexter lives in a great community called Southfield, Michigan. He has been married for forty years and also has two siblings. He moved to Detroit at age 24 and married in 1973. He received his GED, then attended Wayne State University and Detroit Business College. Walter is a member of Vietnam Veterans of America (VVA) and Local 140 U.A.W. (United Auto Workers), and he is president of W. Dexter Publishers LLC. His interests also include basketball, baseball, football, real estate investing, reading, writing, and spending time with his family.

The Long Road is an 82-page paperback with a retail price of $11.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-5767-1. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. For more information, or to request a review copy, please go to our virtual pressroom at www.dorrancepressroom.com or our online bookstore www.bookstore.dorrancepublishing.com.