In This Novel Kids Have the Adventures of their Young Life's

The Mudhole, a new book by Betty McIntyre, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Betty McIntyre gives a glimpse of a day in the life of children in an innocent and entertaining way. The conversations, situations and actions of the children will have readers reflecting on their own adventures as a child. The story of the adventures at the mud hole will remind readers of their own past innocence while warming their hearts with the kindness and care that children can bring.

About the Author

Betty McIntyre is a retired registered nurse of 35 years with a passion for entertaining children and adults. McIntyre gained her influence for her story from her own personal experiences of watching other kids have fun in the mud hole. McIntyre also enjoys painting, doing Genealogy research and working with animals. She has a passion for helping animals and is involved with animal welfare.
