

Shullsburg, WI Author Publishes Debut Novel

In This Novel a Woman Searches for Answers to Mysteries on a Man-Made Island

The Platforms, a new book by Rachael Johnson, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Aneah is a survivor. With others she lives on a platform – a twenty square-mile, man-made island, ten feet above the water and anchored to the ocean floor. The platform provides farmland for food. Everyone on the platform, young and old, must work hard for everything they need.

But Aneah is isolated and eager for something better. She needs to know if this is the only platform or if there are other survivors as well. As she explores, Aneah uncovers the secrets around.

About the Authors

Rachael Johnson is a U.S. Navy veteran. She has two children and lives in Wisconsin. This is her first published book. Johnson first wrote this book as a short story for her friend, but realized that there was so much more to the characters
