When the news strikes, reporting that Kelsi might have killed her parents, she is on the run and in hiding from the police and the drug lord.

Once the baby is born, Kelsi begins her own investigation of the murders, but there is more heartache for her to endure. After the drug lord kidnaps her baby she spends her days hiding in her cave and her nights walking the streets. She is determined to finally get close enough to gather evidence against the drug lord.

Heartache to Happiness is full of love and hate, life and death, revenge and mystery, and then more love. Will Kelsi find the happiness she longs for?
