In This Memoir a Woman Looks Back at the Many Paranormal Events in Her Life

UFOs and a Paranormal Life, a new book by Shirley Wheeler, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

In this autobiographical work, Shirley Wheeler details the sightings of UFOs and other paranormal events that she has experienced throughout her life. Beginning in her childhood in the 1930s, these experiences continue to the present day.

Wheeler delves deeply into both her and her family members' most poignant experiences of otherworldly lights, sounds, smells, and beings. She then draws connections between these sightings, current events, and events in the lives of her loved ones. Wheeler hopes that her readers will enjoy reading about her experiences.

About the Author

Shirley Wheeler was born and grew up in Long Pine, Nebraska, and graduated from high school as the Salutatorian. She received her degree in Archaeology with honors from the local college at the age of 55, a goal she had pursued since age 8. She and her daughter are field investigators for MUFON (Mutual UFO Network). In this position, they take reports from people who have observed unusual crafts or creatures.

In her spare time, Wheeler makes small quilts for the children in Shriner's Hospital in Sacramento, California. She has been writing for most of her life and enjoys creating characters and scenes in hopes others will also enjoy what she has written.
