

Columbus, OH Author Publishes Third Novel

In This Novel a Man in 1500s Europe Sets out to Save Women Who Are being Persecuted as Witches

Refuge of the Weary, a new book by George Zoebel, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

The year is 1596 and women are being murdered by the thousands throughout Europe. Hanged, burned, and drowned after months of unfathomable cruelty, those accused of witchcraft have no defense against this onslaught of evil personified.

Hans Hesse's older sister, Greta, was murdered as a witch, burned alive in front of young Hans. Years later, he sets out on an elaborate ruse to save these women, victims all, just like Greta. Little does he know how his life—and the lives of others—are about to change forever.
