

Royal Oak, MI Authors Publish Memoir of Love

In This Memoir a Wife and Husband Detail their love for Each other and their Shared Hobbies

We Met at the Dump, a new book by Carol and Tom Dean, has been released by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc.

Carol and Tom Dean never believed that they could be artists. But all that changed when they started crafting together in their workshop—teaching themselves drawing, painting, and woodworking.

We Met at the Dump is a celebration of how life changes. Though sometimes change is bittersweet, it can bring about some of the happiest experiences of our lives. Through their unique love story, Carol and Tom found happiness with each other and their newfound hobbies and interests, and hope to inspire others with their story.

About the Author

Carol and Tom Dean have a combined 47 years in sanitation. They have seen many changes over the years, from incineration and landfilling of solid waste to the reuse/recycle movement.

We Met at the Dump is a 90-page paperback with a retail price of $23.00. The ISBN is 978-1-4809-5941-5. It was published by Dorrance Publishing Co., Inc of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
